

Please do not bow to pressure to weaken Wisconsin's Do-Not-Call-List laws. I feel that I should have the right to at least partly control what comes into my home over the phone. Also, I have elderly relatives that shouldn't have to have to hurry to the phone, only to have it be a telemarketer that will try to talk them into something they neither need nor can afford. Thank you for listening to my comments.